

Project Governance

The project partners govern the RiverLink project jointly through Phase 1, with governance arrangements set out within the PPA. The Project delivery structure is vertically integrated with representation from each partner at all levels of project governance as depicted in the adjacent figure.

