Request for information

Thank you for your Official Information Act 1982 (OIA) request of 23 April 2023. You requested:

I would like the surname and rank for Deborah a police employee who works at the Wanganui Central Police Station. She works the night shift.

Your request has been considered under the Official Information Act 1982 and is refused in full for the following reason:

- section 9(2)(a) of the OIA, as the withholding of the information is necessary to protect the privacy of natural persons, including that of deceased natural persons.

Police considers the interests requiring protection by withholding the information are not outweighed by any public interest in release of the information.

Please note that as part of its commitment to openness and transparency, Police proactively releases some information and documents that may be of interest to the public. An anonymised version of this response may be publicly released on the New Zealand Police website.

You have the right to seek an investigation and review by the Ombudsman of this decision. Information about how to make a complaint is available at www.ombudsman.parliament.nz or freephone 0800 802 602.

Nāku noa, nā
