Dear Darcey-Lee,

Transfer of your official information request

Enter Letter Content

Thank you for your official information request received on 5 December 2023 for "information regarding the protocol for Māori owned land exemptions and the role of a development contribution commissioner."

The information to which your request relates is believed to be more closely connected with the functions of the Department of Internal Affairs. Therefore, we are required by section 14 of the Official Information Act to transfer your request to the Department of Internal Affairs.

You will hear further from the Department of Internal Affairs concerning your request. Should you need to contact them, they are available at oiia@dia.govt.nz

Yours sincerely

Pete Hill
