Your Official Information Act request, reference: GOV-022377

Thank you for your email of 2 December 2022, asking for the following information under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act):

It is my understanding that ACC is using Snowflake and dbt as a core software capabilities to manage the ACC data.

- Can you please provide an overview of the procurement/tender process utilised to acquire/license these software capabilities.
- Can you please provide the total cost paid for subscriptions/credits/licenses, for each of these capabilities, broken down by the financial year those costs were incurred.
- Can you please provide the total value of any subscriptions/credits/licenses that have been committed in advanced, for each of these capabilities, broken down by the financial year those costs are committed for.

ACC procured Snowflake in 2020 as a direct source engagement under Rule 14.9.e.ii. of the Government Procurement Rules

The rules for procurement are available online, here: Government Procurement Rules - Rules for sustainable and inclusive procurement.

ACC's use of the DBT product is restricted to the use of the free open-source product. ACC has incurred no costs with DBT. As such, DBT has not been included in the table below.
